

MISSION STATEMENT

- To provide excellent training and qualifications that meet the demands, expectations and needs of both students and employers.
- To develop and utilize technology to maximize student participation.
- To work in partnership with professional bodies and academic institutions, to link pathways between academic and vocational education in international trade and logistics.
- To continuously improve the standard of our provision, services and support to students and employers.